Business Conditions

a review by the
Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

Index for the year 1969

	Month	Pages
Agriculture and farm finance
Banks and PCAs—a comparison	February	5-11
Developments in the cattle industry Continued growth indicated	October	12-16
Farm outlook	January	11-16
Larger farms—a continuing trend	May	7-13
Rise in farmland values slows in Midwest	September	5-9
Banking, credit, and monetary policy
Agency securities and the federal budget	December	12-16
Bank float: by-product of collecting checks	September	12-16
Changing styles in business finance	November	6-16
Consumer instalment loans A profile from Detroit	September	9-12
Customers view a bank merger—before and after surveys	July	5-8
Measures of money and credit	July	11-16
Ownership of demand deposits at large Chicago banks	March	10-16
Pension funds and capital markets	August	7-16
Regulation Z—truth-in-lending	April	11-15
Strong rise in currency circulation	August	2-6
Trends in banking and finance	July	2-5

	Month	Pages
Economic conditions, general
Autos and trucks—output, sales, and credit	March	2-9
Consumption
Patterns shift with rise in income	February	2-4
Personal saving and inflation	May	13-16
The trend of business	January	2-11
The trend of business
New surge in capital expenditures	April	2-10
The trend of business	June	2-9
The trend of business	September	2-5
The trend of business
Another 1966 for homebuilding?	November	2-5
What's happening to take home pay	May	2-6
International trade, finance, and payments Eurodollars—an important source of funds for American banks	June	9-20
Important stake in free trade	July	8-11
International payments
Further improvements needed in the system	February	11-16
Midwest
A leader in production and export growth	December	7-11
Special drawing rights	October	6-11
U. S. foreign trade surplus declines	April	16-20
Trends in the Midwest
Is Megalopolis coming to the Midwest?	December	2-7
Population growth concentrated in suburban counties	October	2-6